Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 21 December 2005.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Herrmann et al. (DE 4203238). Herrmann et al. disclose, in figs.1-3, a synthetic resin cap comprising a thread section 5 forming angle of the threaded section from 600-720 degrees with the divided sections are nearly equal intervals from 45-90 degrees in the circumferential direction; an inner seal projection 8; an opening edge seal projection 17; and a protrusion 14 protruded form the cap top and contacting an opening edge of a container opening at the bottom face thereof.

3. Claims 1, 2, 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Odajima et al. (JP 2001114310). Odajima et al. disclose, in figs.1, 6 and 7, a synthetic resin cap comprising a thread section forming angle of the threaded section from 600-720 degrees (fig. 7) with the divided sections are nearly equal intervals from 45-90 degrees in the circumferential direction (fig. 1); an inner seal projection 15; an opening edge seal projection 13; and a protrusion 14 protruded form the cap top and contacting an opening edge of a container opening at the bottom face thereof.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 3 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Herrmann et al. or Odajima et al. in view of Thompson (6,126,027) or Angeleri (EP 1237587).

Herrmann et al. or Odajima et al. do not disclose the cap comprising the opening edge seal projection being able to bend and be deformed until it contacts the cap body.

Thompson teaches a cap having an opening edge seal projection 19 being able to bend and be deformed until it contacts the cap body. Angeleri teaches a cap having an opening edge seal projection 22 being able to bend and be deformed until it contacts the cap body

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the opening edge seal projection in Herrmann et al. or Odajima et al. with a seal projection being able to bend and be deform until it contacts the cap body, as taught by Thompson or Angeleri, in order to enhance effective sealing.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
